

Iris, Flower of Remembrance

After the Visit, penned by poet Paul Laurence Dunbar, told of his welcome and hospitality shown during visits to family in Lexington, Kentucky.

Matilda Burton Dunbar, his mother, was a sister to Ann Burton Scott
Rebecca Burton Voss
Priscilla Burton Washington
Robert Burton
John Burton
Alexander Burton.

Mrs. Ann Burton Scott, born enslaved June 1825, lived through pivotal periods of our history. She died at the age of 108 in June 1933. Her niece, Lula Washington, married Henry Dunham. He died in 1926.

Meet the descendants at

A Dedication of Memorials for Mrs. Ann Burton Scott and Henry Dunham

May 21, Saturday
3:00 to 4:00pm

African Cemetery No. 2
419 East Seventh Street
Lexington, Kentucky

www.africancemeteryno2.org

Memorial Dedication Program

Created by Yvonne Giles

Used with permission from Yvonne Giles

University of Kentucky Libraries

Notable Kentucky African Americans Database (NKAA)

July 8, 2022